Thank you for attending the Understanding the Brown Act: Core Components, Updates & Ensuring Compliance webinar on August 22, 2013. We hope you found the webinar to be worthwhile and relevant training for you and your special district.

If you completed the online evaluation form, thank you! We value your opinion and your feedback helps us improve and expand our education program with pertinent and significant training for you. If you have suggestions for new special district workshops or webinars, please let us know. Our goal is to bring you the best in special district training.

Did you know CSDA has an online bookstore? These publications complement our workshops and are an excellent resource for you. We have expanded our Bookstore to include additional publications on human resource and legal issues. Check out the complete collection at the CSDA Online Book Store.

Throughout the year, we offer a variety of webinars and over 40 workshops around the state.

Please visit our website at www.csdanet.net for more information on all of our educational events.
